

Pikoro

GAME RULES

ANDRÉS E HURTADO

ma·chis·mo:
mä'CHēzmō/

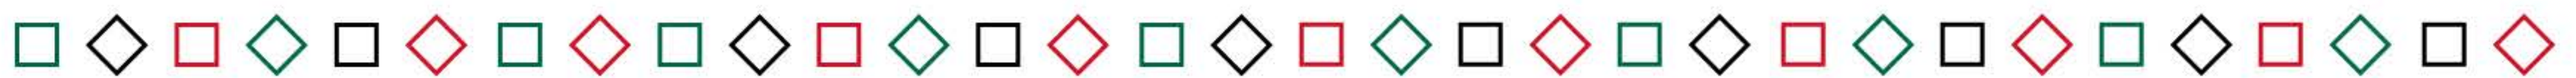

noun

Strong or aggressive masculine pride (very relevant in Mexican culture)

pi·co·so:

adjective

very hot, spicy (Mexican slang)

¡BIENVENIDOS A MÉXICO!

Amigo, amiga, welcome! Now that you're here, you can unlock the secrets to this beautiful diverse country called México. But beware... the only way to discover the amazing secrets Mexico has to offer is by escaping machismo... a harmful attitude, affecting men and women, that's very deeply ingrained in Mexican society and culture, affecting all who are part of it.

To escape machismo, and prevent yourself from being sucked into the machismo pit, like countless of many other lost souls (que la virgencita los bendiga), you must race against others in a journey of spicy jalapeños, trivia, and put your knowledge of what Mexico offers to the test to become the most PICOSO/A! But hurry! Only one will make it out alive from machismo's pit...

GAME RULES

3

DIRECTIONS

1. Pick a sugar skull to represent yourself in your journey.
2. Every player starts in the machismo pit, and takes turns to play (doesn't matter who starts).
3. Roll the roulette with numbers, and advance the number of spaces it lands on.
4. Start advancing spaces in the green level, on the right side of the brown line.
 - Once a player goes around a level, continue to the next level that surrounds the one completed.
ALWAYS START on the RIGHT SIDE of the BROWN LINE.
 - Continue until a player completes all three levels, red, white & green.
5. When landing on a QUESTION MARK SPACE, roll the white roulette with three icons.
 - Grab a trivia card with the same icon the roulette landed on. DO NOT OPEN IT.
 - Face the side with the question to you, and open the card so that the other player/s can see it opened - they must see the answer to the question.
 - Read the question out loud along with its choices, and your answer.
 - Have others tell you the answer once you give yours.
 - If the answer is right, receive a monetary compensation (explained below).
 - If the answer is wrong, receive nothing, and go back to the previous space where you were before.
 - Don't know the answer? You can choose to get help from a friend of your choosing by paying them in return for the answer. No spaces are advanced.

GAME RULES

4

1. Jalapeños are your frenemies... sometimes they're on your side, sometimes they're not...
 - When landing on a JALAPEÑO SPACE, grab a jalapeño card and do what it says
2. The player who first completes all three levels, escaping machismo, wins.
3. After the game, the money the players were left with can be redeemed for Mexican candy.

LEVELS	FOR EVERY QUESTION RIGHT GET...	IF HINT IS GIVEN, GIVE...
	$2 pesos	$5 pesos
	$5 pesos	$10 pesos
	$10 pesos	$20 pesos

GAME BANK

- Put pesos, Mexico's national currency, in a reachable area for all players, and separate them by value for easy organization.
- Use the money to give, and receive coins as needed.
- If more coins of a certain value are needed because they are all in possession of another player, have them exchange their coins for other coins to complete the same value they have.

$10 pesos

$5 pesos

$2 pesos

$1 peso

Redeemable Mexican Candy

Prices:

$15 pesos
(each)

$10 pesos
(each)

$7 pesos
(each)

$3 pesos
(each)